General Information

Philosophy

Nestled in the Santa Cruz Mountains, Camp Auxilium provides an excellent setting for a Catholic Christian camp where young women can experience the joy of a healthy and wholesome life lived in a community of faith. The camp is administered by the Salesian Sisters of St. John Bosco. We are committed to provide a family atmosphere where each individual feels the freedom and responsibility to exercise right judgment and the ability to use her gifts and talents in service of others. The friendships made at camp make God's love tangible and often last a lifetime. We aim to form the young to be "good Christians and honest citizens" empowering them with a joyful vision and hope of a better world.

Acceptance

Rules for acceptance and participation in the summer camp program are the same for everyone regardless of race, color, national origin, or religion.
